Le Vaiaso o le Gagana Samoa Samoan Language week

Last week we celebrated Samoan Language week. The theme for this year was Ma'au i lou ofaga, mau'a lou fa'asinomaga - Keep your identity alive to thrive. It has been a wonderful week filled with opportunities for our aiga to immerse themselves in the language and culture. Amongst other experiences we had special visitors including Buck Stowers, Jerry Seuseu, David Tua, Unasa Joe Brown the MP for Mangere, Aupito Su'a William Sio. Our Samoan Parents to demonstrate traditional food preparation and performances from Marcellin College, Manurewa High School and our very own MBS Samoan group. A huge thank you to all those amazing parents and community members who made Samoan Language Week the fantastic celebration that it was.

Readers and Journal Amnesty

From now until the end of term two we are asking that all readers, journals and other resources belonging to Mangere Bridge School be returned no questions asked. These can be returned to classroom teachers or to the box in the office. We appreciate that things can get lost in bedrooms, down the back of couches, and in school bags so please have a good hunt for us and return anything that you find.
