

Haere mai te wiki o te reo Māori and welcome to Maori language week. This year's theme "Kia ora te reo Māori", was chosen to celebrate New Zealand's indigenous greeting, and also as the words 'Kia Ora' are an exact description of the intent of the new partnerships for te reo Māori revitalisation between the Crown and Māori under the new Māori Language Act 2016.

A big focus for us this week has been around placing a bigger emphasis on us using te reo in our general greeting in and around the school. We have also had a focus on the correct pronunciation of te reo, especially around our student, classroom and place names. This links in with the 'Say It Tika' campaign, led by Temuera Morrison encouraging all New Zealanders to pronounce our place names correctly. We have a large number of local Māori names and just because that has how we have always said it does not mean it is right.

This week also marks Enviroweek and has been used to mark a clean slate for our school in relation to rubbish.

Our litter team presented to the school at an Enviro assembly this morning and after this the Exploring and Discovering Communities did a rubbish busting treasure hunt, giving the school a full clean up as well as identifying the areas in our school where most of the rubbish is accumulating (pictured right). The team will now look to implement strategies to address the rubbish that comes into the school and how we might reduce, and better recycle our litter. Tim Kelly has spear headed this project alongside our Gifted and Talented programme and it has a very strong student driven focus.

The next step is to start developing a sense of responsibility within our students and community. An easy step everybody can take is to consider what is unnecessarily coming to school in student's lunch boxes. Chippie packets, glad wrap, muesli bar wrappers and Le snack packets seem to be commonly discarded around the school. Many of these items could easily be removed or have more reusable substitutes considered.

Next week we have the Road Safety Truck coming to Hurunui College.

Since the 7.8 magnitude earthquake our community has been crowded out with heavy vehicles, so NCTIR, Trucking Industry Associations and Industry Suppliers have got together to put the Safety MAN Road Safety Truck on the road. The Safety MAN Road Safety Truck has a fully customised classroom size trailer fitted out with interactive programs illustrating HOT TIPS on how to share the road safely with big trucks. It is also a great opportunity to remind our students about general safety on our roads, be it walking, biking or in vehicles.

It is great to see a number of our students biking to school but we need to remind these students about road safety and just because our local roads are generally quiet it doesn't mean that the risk does not exist. If your children do regularly use bikes, please take a moment to discuss how to safely use our roads, especially around crossing intersections and staying on the left-hand side of the road. Please also be aware that trains are now fully operational on the SH1 route, so take care around all rail crossings.

Are you planning on flying your drone over council land?

Civil Aviation Rules require you to have the permission of all landowners whose land you want to fly over.

The council recently adopted a policy for drone operation over council reserves. The policy provides permission to fly over council reserves subject to compliance with the appropriate Civil Aviation Rules and policy conditions.

Permission is still required to fly over other council owned land that is not a reserve. The council will consider applications on a case-by-case basis.

Visit hurunui.govt.nz/services/drones for more information.
