

I hope everybody had a chance to take a break over the long weekend. Labour Weekend is one of the many disruptions that make Term Four fly by. We are only three weeks out from Canterbury Anniversary Weekend and it is a good time to remind families that we no longer have the Thursday as a BoT holiday. As the Thursday falls within the NCEA exams the decision has been made to stay open as we are required to run our exam centre and have staff and students in attendance at on that day. School will be closed on the Friday.

Today we have a large group of students heading into the Westpac Arena for the annual Lions Music Festival. Thank you to Sarah Cassidy and Philip Biddlecombe for training up and accompanying the group on the trip today. I hope they all enjoy the experience, and any parents heading in this evening enjoy the show. Also, next Wednesday we will be running the whole school Athletics Sports at the Hawarden domain. This is always an enjoyable day and a great opportunity to come along and support the children.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of appointing Chris Toki to the permanent position in the Discovery area of our school. Chris has been part of the team this year and it is great that he now has the opportunity to continue to develop as a teacher within our school and as the classroom teacher in Waiporoporo next year. There will also be some jiggling around in our Exploring Community, with Jenni McQuillan moving down into our Year 4/5 class and Janet Tilson moving up into the Year 7 class. We have also appointed Margaret Walker into the fixed term Science position, as Tim Kelly heads away on study leave for the year. We are still on the search for a technology teacher and we will keep you all updated on our progress as we head into the end of the year.

A huge congratulation to Asra Ginders for her fantastic achievements over the past school holidays. She won intermediate overall runner-up, second place, in the New Zealand Country Music Entertainer of the Year Awards. This is an absolutely fantastic effort and follows on from her success last year. We are very proud of her achievements and amazed with how quietly she gets it done. It was also great to hear about the achievements of Lilijana Paton at the Taekwondo Nationals and her silver placing in sparring and over the recent long weekend, Leah Crawford placed first at the Nelson Flat Track Motocross Champs (below). This is such a great effort for an 8-year-old and all wonderful examples of our student displaying excellence in their chosen pursuits.

Have your say on proposed changes to the FREEDOM CAMPING BYLAW

What is Freedom Camping?

Freedom camping is the practice of staying in tents or campervans in areas not designated for camping. Freedom campers do not have access to essential facilities such as toilets and waste disposal facilities.

Background

The council has reviewed its existing Freedom Camping Bylaw, and is proposing to replace it with a new bylaw under the Freedom Camping Act 2011.

Freedom Camping Act 2011

The Freedom Camping Act 2011 (the Act) permits freedom camping in all local authority areas unless it is restricted or prohibited through a bylaw made under the Act, or via another enactment.

A local authority area is defined as any land within the council's district that is controlled and/or managed by the council. It does not include other publicly accessible land such as state highways and Department of Conservation land.

To make a bylaw under the Act, the council must be satisfied that the restrictions and prohibitions in the bylaw are necessary to protect:

- the area;
- the health and safety of those who may visit the area; or
- access to the area.

The Act also provides a viable enforcement measure, with warranted officers able to issue fines for breaches of a bylaw made under the powers of the Act. This is not an option for breaches of the existing Freedom Camping Bylaw, with the council's only enforcement measure being to commence court proceedings against an offender.

The proposed changes

The most significant amendment proposed is removing the total prohibition of freedom camping in the Hanmer Springs Basin. Freedom camping will remain prohibited within the settlement area (with the exception of a few designated carparks). The bylaw also proposes closing the designated freedom camping area in Rotherham.

While the proposed bylaw generally prohibits freedom camping in all settlement areas throughout the district, it does suggest permitting overnight freedom camping in any vehicle at designated carparks near specified public toilets.

There are two reserve areas where all forms of freedom camping are proposed to be permitted – the Glenmark Domain and the Scargill Motunau Reserve.

For any local authority not explicitly identified as a prohibited, restricted or permitted area, the bylaw proposes that freedom camping be permitted in certified self-contained vehicles only. A two-night limit is suggested to apply to all freedom camping in the district.

Affected sections of the Huronui Reserve Management Plan will also need to be updated if the proposed bylaw is adopted.

A full Statement of Proposal, including both the existing and proposed bylaws and the area-specific assessment, can be found on our website www.huronui.govt.nz or at any of our service centers in the district.

What do you think? Whether you agree with the proposed changes or not, we really want to hear from you.
