The fierce dragon stomped to the castle and dragged the wooden drawbridge down and the prince woke with a terrible fright. He went to the door and saw the green and yellow spotted dragon. He yelled and fainted. The brave prince was fierce and squirted the dragon in the mouth so it didn't breath fire. It turns out that he just wanted a drink of water.

Children from across Marlborough Kiwi Can schools have been preparing a variety performance to celebrate the impact of Kiwi Can on them and their schools, as well as to acknowledge the community support that has helped make it all happen. Kiwi Can now reaches 2,200 Marlborough children in 12 local schools every week - a significant impact across the region - and definitely worth celebrating!

'Kiwi Can Jam, a celebration of 5 years of Kiwi Can in Marlborough' will begin at 6.30pm, Tuesday 29th May. All welcome. Free entry however seat bookings are essential, online at www.dinglefoundation.org.nz/marlborough/about

 Levi "I thought the best bit was when they taught us to get on and off the bike correctly."

 Annika "I liked that we learnt the safe way of turning by putting your arms out to show which way you are going."
