From the Acting Principal - Miss Alano

What a great night turnout for our “Around the World” show last night. We hope you enjoyed seeing our children perform. We raised $185 - thank you to our whanau who donated. Your support is very much appreciated.

Our wonderful school singers.

Hindi Speech Competition

Congratulations to Evlyeen, Elvrina, Evnik Ram and Aarnav Kumar who participated in the Hindi Language Speech Competition earlier this month. Evlyeen placed 4th in the Year 5 category. Congratulations Evlyeen.

Duffy Assembly

This was held last Tuesday in our school Hall. Michel Mulipola - a Samoan comic book artist and wrestler was the speaker. Our sponsors The Rotary Club also attended. The children enjoyed listening to the speaker and loved their Duffy books.

Filipino Speech Competition

A huge congratulations to Jaymar and Razel who both came first in the Tagalog speech competition held last Wednesday at St Marks School in Pakuranga. This was our schools first time entering and both children recieved medals and a certificate. Jaymar was our Year 6 rep and Razel our Year 7 rep.

Student Teacher

Tomorrow we say farewell to our Student Teacher Sarah Beckhaus who is in Room 2 with Mrs Kumar. We will miss her support and help and enjoyed having her as part of PDS whanau. Good luck Mrs Beckhaus with your studies. We hope you come and visit us again soon.

Netball

Yesterday, some Year 5-8 students competed in the Tamaki Cluster Netball Tournament held at the Auckland Netball Courts. The children did well to compete in the Tournament then participate in the show last night. Photos to follow next term.
