Welcome to Week Eight.

Administration Building Update

GREAT NEWS!!

We have finally received council consent to proceed with our renovations to our Administration block. The hold-up was largely due to the unusual situation of having a community owned building on a Ministry owned site. However after many delays and frustrations we are now in the renovation phase of the project. Lehmann Building will be carrying out the project. Thanks to Stu Davison for his help with concreting the new path and Robert Shewry for volunteering your skills to construct our new driveway fence.

School Livestock Day

Wednesday the 16th of October.

Please register your child's Livestock Day animal before the end of this week.

Livestock Group Day 24th October

This year Tahuna School is the duty school for organising the Livestock Group Day event at the Morrinsville Rec grounds. This will take place on Thursday the 24th of October. As duty school we are responsible for organising the food and venue for the event. We are looking for willing people to help us with the following tasks:

- setup of competition rings for lambs and kids
- helpers for the community caravan (one person with a food certificate would help.)
- baking for the judges morning tea.

Please contact the office if you can help in any of these areas. We realise that this event is a long way off but with two weeks holiday coming up we would prefer to have it well organised before then.

Chris May Presentation – 18th Sept, 7pm, Morrinsville College Library

Next Wednesday the Morrinsville Community of Learning will be hosting a very local guest speaker. Chris May, Principal of Tauhei Combined School, will be sharing his findings and insights about Educating Boys for Manhood. Chris aims to help parents and teachers “explore ways that recognise and develop the amazing potential our boys have as they grow to be great men.”

I know Chris well and I am sure that this will be a worthwhile evening to hear some new ideas and techniques for helping our boys develop positively. If you are interested in attending please visit <http://tinyurl.com/ChrisMayMorrinsville>

Admission is free but registration is required.
