HAERE MAI

Amanda Sherriff—our new teacher

We have been fortunate to find a passionate teacher with enthusiasm for working with juniors. She is from a rural background and has a myriad of skills and knowledge we know our school will hugely benefit from! Mrs Sherriff will be working in the new Room1/2 space alongside Mrs Dinning. This confirms all of our staffing for 2017—next weeks newsletter will have all the classes and their teaching staff set out to ensure our students and whanau know where they're going for day 1, 2017!

P.E. UNIFORMS—To be returned

There are still a few outstanding, please get these back to the office ASAP. Also, the senior puffer jackets. :)

SCHOOL POOL KEYS AVAILABLE

The School Pool is open again, so if you would like to purchase a key for over the Summer, please let the office know. They are $50 (including a $10 deposit). The pool will stay open until about the end of March (depending on water temperature).

Need a Pool Key?

Thank You

To all of our families who have been paying their outstanding fees and any other items. This is the time of year when our school accounts can start to look a little bedraggled and your donations make a real difference.

We are laying them down to stop the weeds growing around the fruit trees. We would appreciate your donations. If you would like to drop any donations at the school in the holidays you are welcome to, please put neatly behind the pool change sheds, on the current pile.

Celebrating Success: On the weekend Daniel Muller competed at the Tokoroa A&P show, with outstanding results. He placed 3rd in All Breeds, 1st in Young Handlers (U18), and was Junior Champion in Breed (Holstein). Ka mau te wehi Daniel!
