My long weekend

I have dreamed of doing the Poverty Bay Hunt Club 3 day trek.....

It's always been held over Waitangi Weekend—and between being pregnant, breastfeeding, or in Michigan, I have not had the opportunity... but this year the stars aligned and my dream came true. :) I was loaned my mount (Mac, an extremely well mannered palomino gelding) and had a couple of supporters taking part too. We rode over 3 stations (8 hours a day) on a different station each day. On the second day we rode down to the beach at Makarori and had a swim with the horses. It was everything I dreamed it would be and more. Our country is truly beautiful, although the effects of drought are already very apparent in that region. Several of the stations are selling stock to lessen the stress on their feed. It was an awesome experience and one I will hopefully get to take part in again! Keep on dreamin'
